STELLA SAMPRAS WEBSTER

Head Coach
27th Season
UCLA '91

Owner of an impressive overall record of 488-178 (.733), head coach Stella Sampras Webster enters her 27th season at the helm of UCLA women's tennis in 2022-23. Sampras Webster is only the third head coach in program history, following legends Bill Zaima (1972-76, 1986-1996) and Gayle Godwin (1977-1986). The second-longest-tenured active coach at UCLA, Sampras Webster has led the women's tennis program to both of its NCAA team championships. On April 9, 2010, she passed friend and mentor Zaima as the program's all-time leader in head-coaching victories, with No. 246.

Sampras Webster and the Bruins captured the 2014 NCAA title with a thrilling 4-3 victory over North Carolina in Athens, Ga. It marked the 111th NCAA championship for UCLA. The Bruins finished the 2014 campaign with a 27-2 overall record, which included a 9-1 mark in the highly-competitive Pac-12 Conference. UCLA did not surrender the doubles point in any match that year, going a perfect 29-0 in doubles play. The 2014 season marked the second NCAA championship for Sampras Webster, as she also led UCLA to the title in 2008. UCLA's 2008 title was the first NCAA championship for the program, following up on the team's 1981 AIAW national crown.

The 2012 ITA National Coach of the Year, Sampras Webster is also responsible for helping UCLA to its first Pac-10 championship in 2008, as the Bruins ended the conference season with a 7-1 record that year. For her efforts, she was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year at the end of the season.

Few college coaches can match Sampras Webster's ability to continually put her team in the title hunt year in and year out. Prior to her first title in 2008, she also had a pair of second-place finishes at the NCAAs in 2004 and 2007. In all, Sampras Webster's teams have finished in the top 10 at the NCAA Championships in 21 of her 25 completed seasons in Westwood. UCLA has also finished in the top five nationally on 15 occasions. The 2020 Bruins, who had their season cut short by the coronavirus pandemic, held a record of 12-1 for the best start in program history since the 2014 NCAA champions. They also matched the 2014 team in reaching the final round of the ITA National Team Indoor Championships.

The shortened-season success carried into 2021 for Sampras Webster and UCLA, which outscored conference opponents by a margin of 47 points (53-6) en route to a 10-0 record and the first outright regular-season Pac-12 championship in program history. The 2008 Bruins shared the league title with Stanford. Sampras Webster was named the Southwest Region Wilson ITA Coach of the Year for her role in guiding the 2021 team. She previously earned the same honor in 2000 and 2012.

Sampras Webster has recruited and coached some of the top players in collegiate tennis. Under her tutelage, a total of 32 players have achieved All-America status. Two of the most notable during Sampras Webster's tenure are Riza Zalameda and Robin Anderson. Zalameda was a four-time All-American and the Most Outstanding Player at the 2008 NCAA Championships. Anderson, who like Zalameda was named the Most Outstanding Player at the NCAAs in 2014, also achieved All-America status each of her four years. Sampras Webster has guided five four-time All-Americans in all, with Sara Walker, Kyle McPhillips and Jada Hart rounding out the quintet.

Three Sampras Webster-coached duos have won NCAA doubles championships, including Zalameda and Tracy Lin in 2008. Seeded first, Zalameda and Lin did not lose a set in the tournament. Daniela Bercek and Lauren Fisher captured the initial title, overcoming an unseeded starting position in 2004. Most recently, Gabby Andrews and Ayan Broomfield accomplished the feat in 2019. The fifth-seeded pair won three third-set, 10-point tiebreakers en route to the top spot. Hart and Elysia Bolton finished atop the Oracle/ITA doubles rankings in 2020, but were unable to compete for the championship due to the shortened season.

Sampras Webster has also directed a pair of future Grand Slam champions in Abigail Spears and Ena Shibahara, who won mixed doubles titles at the 2017 Australian and 2022 French Opens, respectively. Jennifer Brady, who starred for the 2014 NCAA champions as a freshman, made a run to the 2020 U.S. Open singles semifinals before reaching the Australian Open singles final the next year.

A 1991 graduate of UCLA with a degree in psychology, Sampras Webster enjoyed a successful four-year career as a Bruin player from the fall of 1987 through the spring of 1991 and competed on the pro circuit for a season prior to joining Zaima's staff. An NCAA doubles champion as a freshman in 1988 with Allyson Cooper, Sampras Webster was also the NCAA doubles runner-up as a senior in 1991 with Kimberly Po. A four-time All-American, Sampras Webster was, at the time, only the second player in UCLA women's tennis history to obtain this status. She also won the 1989 and 1991 Pac-10 doubles championships and the 1990 Rolex Regional doubles title. Sampras Webster completed her UCLA career ranked No. 3 nationally in doubles and No. 42 in singles. Team accomplishments were most important to Sampras Webster, who helped lead the Bruins to four straight NCAA top-three finishes.

As a professional, Sampras Webster's highest international singles ranking was No. 248, and her best in doubles was No. 142. Her professional highlights include competing in both singles and doubles at the U.S. Open and Lipton Championships. Sampras Webster advanced to the U.S. Open second round in doubles and also competed in doubles at Wimbledon. She also won three satellite tournament titles and competed in Team Tennis for the Wichita Advantage in 1992.

Lauded for her "achievements and contributions to the game of tennis across Southern California," Sampras Webster was inducted into the Southern California Tennis Association Hall of Fame in 2017. Then, in 2018, she became just the fourth active head coach to gain entry into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame.

Born in Potomac, Md., Sampras Webster moved to the Los Angeles area as a child and graduated from Palos Verdes High School in Palos Verdes Estates, Calif. A top-three player in Southern California and among the top 10 in the country as a junior player, a freshman Sampras Webster claimed the CIF-Southern Section doubles championship in 1983, as well as the singles title during her senior season in 1986. She capped her high school career by being named her school's Athlete of the Year.

The second oldest of four children of Sam and Georgia Sampras, Stella considers the support of her entire family most significant. Younger brother Pete demonstrated his level of support for Stella and the Bruin program when he personally endowed a scholarship and assisted with the important fundraising effort in Stella's first fall as head coach. Pete won a then-record 14 Grand Slam singles titles during his playing days, including seven Wimbledon championships.

Sampras Webster and her husband, Steve, were married Jan. 3, 2002 in Dana Point, Calif. They are the proud parents of twin girls Sophia and Savannah.

RANCE BROWN

Associate Head Coach
26th Season

Associate head coach Rance Brown enters his 26th season on the UCLA women's tennis coaching staff in 2022-23. He served under Bill Zaima in 1996, and has been Stella Sampras Webster's top assistant for 25 seasons. The 2000 and 2012 ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year, Brown was promoted to the position of associate head coach effective at the beginning of the 2008-09 season.

During Brown's tenure, UCLA has continually been among the top teams in the nation. In addition to NCAA titles in 2008 and 2014, the Bruins have finished runner-up at the NCAA Championships four times (2004, 2007, 2012 and 2015). UCLA has made the NCAA tournament in each of his 24 completed seasons as an assistant. The 2020 team, led by the top-ranked doubles tandem of Elysia Bolton and Jada Hart, went 12-1 and reached the final round of the ITA National Team Indoor Championships in the coronavirus-shortened season. The next year, the Bruins went 10-0 in regular-season conference play, outscoring opponents by a 53-6 margin en route to the program's first outright Pac-12 championship.

Brown has especially excelled in the area of recruiting, bringing in a number of highly-ranked junior players to the program over the years. He was also instrumental in the success of NCAA singles champion Keri Phebus, who became the first women's tennis player inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007. Three NCAA doubles championships have also been won during his time, with 2019 titleholders Gabby Andrews and Ayan Broomfield recently following in the footsteps of Daniela Bercek and Lauren Fisher in 2004 and Tracy Lin and Riza Zalameda in 2008.

Brown has been named the ITA Southwest Region Assistant Coach of the Year on five occasions (1999, 2000, 2007, 2010 and 2012). A total of 31 All-American Bruins have been named over the course of his time in Westwood. Among them was Ena Shibahara, who helped capture the 2022 French Open mixed doubles title. Brown also coached 2017 Australian Open mixed doubles champion Abigail Spears at UCLA.

Brown spent the summer of 2008 as the coach of the USTA Summer Collegiate Team, traveling to professional tournaments with some of the top women's college players in the nation. He also guided USA Team's contingent of Bruins at the 2015 Summer Universiade (World University Games) in Gwangju, South Korea and the 2019 event in Naples, Italy. Brown went on to represent his home country at the 2019 Master'U BNP Paribas tournament in Grenoble, France, where he was an assistant coach for the title-winning Americans.

In addition to his efforts with the UCLA program, Brown was among the first graduating classes of the USTA High Performance Coaches' Program. He also worked at the Riviera Country Club, heading up the club's Elite Junior Tennis Program along with professional coach Erik Kortland. Prior to his appointment at Riviera, Brown headed up one of the most successful junior tennis programs in the country, serving as Director of Tennis at the Newport Beach Marriott Hotel and Tennis Club in Orange County for more than 20 years.

Brown received his Associate of Arts degree from Golden West Junior College, where he played tennis for two years. He helped lead the team to two conference team titles and notched one conference doubles title. Brown played the 1981 season at Long Beach State and competed professionally at Challenger Level tournaments before devoting his time to coaching.

RODNEY MARSHALL

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season
Florida State '01

An acclaimed performance coach for many of the world's top professional tennis players, Rodney Marshall was named volunteer assistant coach for UCLA women's tennis Sept. 23, 2022.

Marshall joined the Bruins after spending the previous five years in Orlando, Fla., where he worked with standout Americans Madison Keys, Caty McNally and Alison Riske-Armitraj. He has overseen strength and conditioning, nutrition and injury prevention for Keys, whose WTA singles ranking recently reached a 2022-best No. 17.

From 2009-2018, Marshall served as lead national strength and conditioning coach for USTA Player Development, spearheading strength and conditioning efforts for top American players out of the National Training Centers in Orlando and Carson, Calif. He also assisted with nutrition, sports medicine and injury prevention.

Marshall's time at the USTA also afforded him the opportunity to manage strength and conditioning programs for multiple United States Davis Cup teams under captains Patrick McEnroe and Jim Courier. Among the American men who have been guided by Marshall are Mardy Fish, John Isner, Steve Johnson, Sam Querrey, Jack Sock and current ATP World No. 12 Taylor Fritz. Australian Thanasi Kokkinakis also worked under Marshall's tutelage.

Marshall has also aided in the development of numerous top-100 American women, including, but not limited to, Claire Liu, Christina McHale and Sloane Stephens.

A graduate of Florida State University in 2001, Marshall has held a consulting role in the Seminoles' athletic department. He possesses certifications from USA Track & Field and USA Weightlifting, among other governing bodies.

With the ability to hold more than 10,000 spectators, the Los Angeles Tennis Center is one of the nation's premier on-campus facilities.

Los Angeles Tennis Center

Located on the UCLA campus nestled just west of Pauley Pavilion and south of Drake Stadium is the impressive Los Angeles Tennis Center: home to both UCLA men's and women's tennis teams.

The LATC was the first large-scale outdoor tennis stadium opened in the Los Angeles metropolitan area and was officially dedicated on May 20, 1984, just in time to host the 1984 NCAA Women's Tennis Championships and the 1984 Olympic Games. Since then, the LATC has been site of several top collegiate and professional tournaments. The NCAA Women's Tennis Championships returned to the LATC in 1987 and '88, while the NCAA Men's Tennis Championships called the LATC home in 1997.

On the professional level, the LATC has been a regular stop of the ATP Tour for many years. The first tournament held at the LATC, the Union 76 Pacific Southwest Open, featured former Bruins Jimmy Connors and Eliot Teltscher in the finals. The tournament, renamed The LA Open, continued to thrive at the LATC until 2012.

The LATC features six lighted, hard-surface courts, a 5,800-permanent seat grandstand around the three main courts and a two-level clubhouse. At full capacity, the LATC can accommodate more than 10,000 spectators. The clubhouse contains locker rooms, coaches' offices and team rooms for both the UCLA men's and women's teams, as well as offices for the Southern California Tennis Association (SCTA).

The second level of the clubhouse features a 4,000-square foot indoor dining area and kitchen. Center court is called the Times-Mirror Center Court. The stadium is named the Straus Stadium and Clubhouse.

In January of 2010, both the men's and women's teams received a complete renovation of their locker rooms.

The newest project at the LATC was completed in January 2019, when the Katz Family Scoreboard debuted. Its Daktronics display, measuring 18 feet high and 31.2 feet wide, is among the largest LED video screens in collegiate tennis. Stationed at the east end of LATC's main stadium courts, the board features a 13HD pixel pitch and RGB LED lights. Also new to the match-day experience is a custom JBL speaker system set to improve audio on the front courts while introducing sound to the back courts. The Budge Offer Family Scoreboard previously served UCLA tennis for nearly 20 years.

The Elvin & Bert Abels Scoreboard was installed overlooking the back courts in September 2022. The Greiner Family Scoreboard first enabled fans to follow the action on every court from either location when it was hung in 2005.

The men's and women's locker rooms were renovated in 2010.

The Katz Family Scoreboard was unveiled in January 2019.

Martin Jarmond

Director of Athletics
3rd Year
UNC Wilmington '01

Martin Jarmond, a nationally recognized leader in college athletics, has built an impressive track record of competitive excellence, innovative strategy and student athlete success. A two-time recipient of Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 Award with 20 years in sports administration spanning three conferences, Jarmond is guiding UCLA to new heights through his culture of an E.L.I.T.E. mindset – Energy, Leadership, Integrity, Toughness and Excellence. Jarmond's results-driven strategies combined with a relentless work ethic to elevate UCLA Athletics creates an exceptional experience for student-athletes and fans alike.

Jarmond was hired on May 19, 2020, as UCLA's Alice and Nahum Lainer Family Director of Athletics, becoming the ninth athletic director in school history. Jarmond made an immediate impact on the Bruins, jumpstarting the Voting Matters Initiative, the first of its kind in the country which assisted student-athletes in discovering the tools needed to exact meaningful change through civic duty. Jarmond engineered a partnership between UCLA and Nike/Jordan Brand, becoming only the fifth Jordan brand school in the nation and the first partnership with Nike in UCLA history. The six-year agreement between UCLA and Nike provides for 22 of the 25 UCLA varsity sports with Nike apparel, while football, men's basketball and women's basketball don Jordan Brand. Jarmond exhibits a strong commitment to mental health awareness, and his emphasis on diversity and inclusion was recognized in a 2021 SBJ award for being a national leader in diversity and inclusive hiring. He was the Pac-12 Conference representative to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee for 2021-22.

Through Jarmond's instrumental leadership, UCLA Athletics is at the forefront of a rapidly changing collegiate athletics landscape. In the burgeoning area of Name, Image and Likeness (NIL), Jarmond launched new support for student-athletes, including "Westwood Ascent" a comprehensive NIL program designed to support UCLA's student-athletes to build their personal brand and maximize their NIL opportunities. In addition, the launch of Westwood Exchange, a free business registry designed for companies, donors, fans and alumni that want to connect directly with UCLA's student-athletes interested in capitalizing on their NIL, ranked in the top 3 in the country.

In June of 2022, Jarmond worked closely with campus leadership while playing a critical role in UCLA Athletics applying and being accepted for future membership in the Big Ten Conference. One of the most important announcements in the history of UCLA Athletics, the Bruins will join the Big Ten Conference in 2024.

Comprehensive work by Jarmond and his staff throughout the pandemic, ensured all Bruin teams could compete safely during their 2020-21 seasons. UCLA teams captured four conference titles and the men's water polo team brought national title No. 119 home to Westwood. The men's basketball team embarked on a remarkable journey which led to an appearance in the 2021 NCAA Final Four and the program's first national semifinal appearance since 2008. These athletic achievements were balanced by record numbers of student-athletes earning spots on the conference all-academic squads, with 49 individuals earning a perfect 4.0 GPA for the Winter Quarter, and 131 student-athletes earning their UCLA degrees. For the first time ever, the Bruins produced multiple winners of the NCAA Elite 90 Award. Four student-athletes were recognized by CoSIDA as Academic All-Americans.

Jarmond came to UCLA from Boston College, where he served as the school's Director of Athletics for three years. During his time there, he orchestrated the Eagles' first-ever strategic plan, a comprehensive five-year goal to advance the program by fostering student-athlete formation, strengthening competitive excellence, increasing external engagement and enhancing facilities. The strategic plan was supported by BC's first-ever athletics-only capital campaign, at the time, the largest campaign of any Atlantic Coast Conference institution at $150 million. Jarmond hired high-impact coaches in football, women's basketball, softball, volleyball, swimming & diving, men's soccer, women's soccer and fencing. Jarmond served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Oversight Committee and on the John McLendon Minority Scholarship Foundation Board of Directors.

Prior to joining Boston College in 2017 and becoming the youngest athletic director of any Power Five institution at age 37, Jarmond previously served as deputy director of athletics at Ohio State, moving up the ranks after arriving as an associate athletic director for development in 2009. During his time at Ohio State, he was the lead administrator for a variety of sports, including football and men's basketball, and directed external and internal relations and day-today operations. He also had responsibility for football scheduling, served on the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Committee, and was a member of the inaugural College Football Playoff National Championship Advisory Group and the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee. As Ohio State Athletics' chief advancement officer, Jarmond helped raise more than $120 million between 2010-2012.

Jarmond was also an assistant athletic director for development for seven years at Michigan State, where he served on the athletic director's executive leadership team. He was a key member of the $1.2 billion "Campaign for MSU" development team and a liaison between Michigan State's university development and alumni association leadership. Jarmond led the efforts to implement Scholarship Seating in football and Courtside seating in men's basketball.

A native of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Jarmond, 42, earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. A two-year captain of the men's basketball team, he led his team to the program's first-ever NCAA tournament appearance in 2000 and earned Colonial Athletic Association All-Academic honors in 2001. He holds both a M.B.A. and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University. Jarmond is married to Dr. Jessica Jarmond, a dentist. They have three daughters: Scarlett, Savannah and Serena.

Chris Carlson

Associate Athletic Director
9th Year
UC Santa Barbara '93

Chris Carlson, who previously served the men's basketball program at UCLA for five years, begins his ninth year as an Associate Athletic Director supervising women's tennis. Carlson also supervises men's basketball, men's and women's golf and men's tennis.

Prior to returning to UCLA, Carlson worked one year as an Associate Commissioner for the West Coast Conference. Previous to that position, he was the head men's basketball coach at UC San Diego, where he guided the Tritons to the Division II NCAA Tournament in three of his six seasons.

Carlson served five years (2003-07) as Director of Operations for former UCLA basketball coach Ben Howland. At UCLA, Carlson was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the program and served as a liaison to the athletic administration and other school officials. Additionally, he assisted in scheduling and recruiting. Prior to that, Carlson served in the same capacity for two years (2002-03) at the University of Pittsburgh.

Originally from the San Diego area, Carlson joined the Pittsburgh staff (where Howland was the head coach) in the summer of 2001. Before joining Howland at Pittsburgh, Carlson was on Howland's coaching staff at Northern Arizona for one season (1998-99). Howland left NAU a year later to take the Pittsburgh head coaching position. Carlson remained at NAU for two more years (1999-2001), where he worked with the Lumberjacks' post players, along with recruiting and scheduling.

Prior to working at Northern Arizona, Carlson served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, UC Santa Barbara, from 1994-98.

Carlson was also an assistant coach at Dos Pueblos HS in Goleta from 1991-93.

His administrative basketball experience includes his one year at the West Coast Conference (2013) and 12 years as a game management assistant for the National Association of Basketball Coaches All-Star Game. Carlson has also worked four NCAA Tournament West Regionals.

Carlson is a 1993 graduate of UC Santa Barbara with a bachelor's degree in History. He is married to Karen Nance and they have two sons, Nick and Charlie. His older son, Nick, plays on the men's basketball team at Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo, Calif.

Dr. Gene Block

Chancellor
16th Year
Stanford '77

A champion of high-quality, accessible public higher education, Gene Block has served as chancellor of UCLA —overseeing the university's three-part mission of education, research and service—since 2007.

Under Chancellor Block's leadership, UCLA has greatly enhanced its position as a national leader in enrolling undergraduates who come from low-income backgrounds, have been traditionally underrepresented in higher education or are among the first in their families to go to college. During his tenure, UCLA has also become the most applied-to university in the nation, has advanced in rankings in nearly every discipline, has significantly deepened its international partnerships and engagement with alumni, and now receives more than $1.6 billion annually in research grants.

An expert in neuroscience, Chancellor Block holds faculty appointments in psychiatry and biobehavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA and the UCLA College. His research focuses on the neurobiology of circadian rhythms.

Before becoming UCLA chancellor, Block spent 29 years at the University of Virginia, where he was most recently vice president and provost. He has served on the executive boards of several leading organizations, including the Association of American Universities and National Collegiate Athletic Association. He is currently chair of the Association of Pacific Rim Universities and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.
